

DATA PRIVACY POLICY

Your privacy is important to JAR Capital. This policy statement provides information about how JAR Capital gathers and uses personal information.

DATA SECURITY AND PRIVACY

JAR Capital is committed to respecting the personal data you supply to us and all data supplied is subject to the Data Protection Act 1998. The information we collect will be relevant to the purposes for which they are to be used and we will do our utmost to ensure that such data will be accurate, complete and kept up to date. Whenever personal data is obtained from you, you will have access to information as to how that data will be used. Any data supplied will be held on JAR Capital's secure database and may be used to keep you informed about any services relating to your business. JAR Capital does not sell, trade or rent your personal information to any other company or organisation without your explicit permission, or unless ordered by a court of law.

INFORMATION TRACKING

We may use technology to track the patterns of behaviour of visitors to our site. This can include the use of "cookies", a text-only string of information that gets entered into the memory of your browser. This data is collected primarily for monitoring the usage and performance of our website. We may use your IP address and track browser types to build a profile of our users.

COOKIES

Cookies are text files placed on your computer to collect standard internet log information and visitor behaviour information. This information is used to track visitor use of the website and to compile statistical reports on website activity. For further information visit www.aboutcookies.org or www.allaboutcookies.org. You can set your browser not to accept cookies and the above websites tell you how to remove cookies from your browser. However in a few cases some of our website features may not function as a result. The way in which you adjust your browser security setting varies from browser to browser.
